To whom it may concern

The Cape Town Partnership is delighted to endorse the Desmond Tutu Peace Centre, which we believe is destined to become an outstanding asset for the City of Cape Town.

South Africa and Cape Town enjoy a unique place in history, achieving a peaceful transition to democracy that was hailed as a triumph of reconciliation and social justice over oppression; Archbishop Desmond Tutu played a crucial role in that effort and is an icon for justice, hope and forgiveness.

It is my desire that the Mother City will harness this heritage and use it to inspire others who seek freedom and peace. The ethos of the Cape Town City Partnership dovetails neatly with that of the Desmond Peace Centre: both organisations aim to see the city reach its potential not only as a commercial success, but also a place of ethical and moral authority.

We eagerly await the construction and completion of the Desmond Tutu Peace Centre, and the activities it will pursue.

Kind regards

ANDREW BORAINÉ
